Julie,

The Office of the Secretary is reviewing DOL's responses to USDA's comments on their Child Labor draft proposed rule, however the Advisor that handles this area will be out until June 20. He is very interested in working with DOL's policy officials to resolve some of these issues.

Given the situation can we get a little more time?

Katrina –

Please find attached DOL's response to USDA's comments regarding the Child Labor proposed NPRM. We would much appreciate it if you all could take a look and let us know what concerns USDA still has with this rulemaking. It would be great if we could get your response by COB next Friday, June 10th.

What would be most helpful at this point is for you all to identify separately policy issues where you disagree with DOL's position and/or wish to see revisions (suggested language appreciated) and what I would refer to as technical concerns (e.g., inaccuracies/factual errors/places where the rule is unclear.)

Once we get those, we'll be in touch with next steps. I will be leaving for a four month detail starting Monday, so I've cc'd Julie Wise who will handle this issue going forward. Julie is the OIRA desk officer for AMS and FNS, so she's not a stranger to USDA – you all are in good hands.

Thanks much,
Brenda

Hi, Julie. I know that a key person at USDA has been out, but it would be great to hear and discuss USDA's feedback sometime this week. (It may already be on your To Do list, but I'm just sending a friendly reminder in case it isn't, as I'm expecting to get asked soon about the status.) Maybe you and I can also discuss next steps moving forward with regard to this rule sometime this week as well. Thanks a lot. Jonathan

Overall, it'd probably be good for you and me to discuss next steps moving forward. I'm available the rest of today, and on Tue. and Wed. (I'll be out on Thurs. and Fri. and back on Mon.). I'd like to give our team a heads-up on where things stand before I leave, if at all possible. Thanks. Jonathan

Nice speaking with you today. Has OMB concluded its review of this rule or are you still in the process of getting final clearances? If you still are, how long do you think that will take? Just thinking timeline now. Thanks.

Hi, Brenda. We can still do tomorrow, Wed., between 12:00 and 2:00, as we proposed last week. Otherwise, it'll have to be this Fri., from 10:00-11:00 (preferably) or from 2:30-3:30. Unfortunately, it's looking like a call rather than a face-to-face meeting at this point, but it's probably more important that we have the conversation, hopefully by the end of the week. That being said, USDA (and you) are welcome to meet here at DOL, if that works. And once we decide on a time, maybe we can make it work, by traveling to either USDA or OMB (I'll check again, but schedules seem tight). We can discuss if you want. Thanks. Jonathan

Sorry for the lag in responding. OMB schedules got a little crazy. I checked back with DOL and they are available at either 10:00 or 2:30 on this Friday, May 13th. Would either time work for USDA. At this point, we're probably looking at a call rather than a face-to-face.

Happy to facilitate a discussion with DOL. I'd like to have a sense of USDA's comments/concerns and have something for DOL to react to. Do you all still plan to send along comments Tuesday reflecting USDA's thinking?

Brenda,

USDA would like to move forward with a interagency meeting (we can provide a telecom line if you need it).

The week of April 11 works best for us.

I have added the USDA contacts for this rule as a carbon copy.

Thank you.

Hi, Brenda. We can still do tomorrow, Wed., between 12:00 and 2:00, as we proposed last week. Otherwise, it'll have to be this Fri., from 10:00-11:00 (preferably) or from 2:30-3:30. Unfortunately, it's looking like a call rather than a face-to-face meeting at this point, but it's probably more important that we have the conversation, hopefully by the end of the week. That being said, USDA (and you) are welcome to meet here at DOL, if that works. And once we decide on a time, maybe we can make it work, by traveling to either USDA or OMB (I'll check again, but schedules seem tight). We can discuss if you want. Thanks. Jonathan

Katrina --

Thank you for reaching out. I was planning to circulate the rule to you all. The latest version is attached. We are interested in USDA's perspective on the entire rule, and in particular on the portions dealing with exemptions from the Agricultural Hazardous Occupations Orders (beginning on page 57.) Would appreciate any feedback USDA might have by C.O.B. on April 1st. If USDA believes that a call with DOL would be helpful, I can arrange for one after the USDA comments are received.

Please advise if you have any questions or wish to discuss.

Thanks,
Brenda

Brenda,

I checked the OIRA website and I see that DOL's draft proposed rule on Child Labor Regulations, Orders and Statements of Interpretation, Child Labor Violations—Civil Money Penalties is currently under an EO 12866 review by OMB.

Are you the contact for this? If so, would you forward a copy of the request to me and I will circulate it for review and comment here at USDA.

Thank you.

Hi, Brenda. Nice to meet you the other day. The attached document reflects passback comments from OMB, USDA, and Advocacy and our edits and responses to those comments. A few nonsubstantive additional changes are also included to reflect more recent data, consistency in terminology, and clarifications. We are available should OMB want to discuss any of the comments or responses and look forward to clearance of this NPRM. Thanks. Jonathan

Barbara –

Please see attached for comments on the RIA. We expect these to be the overwhelming majority of the additional comments. Will advise a bit later this afternoon if any additional comments are expected.

You'll see that there are two overarching concerns with respect to the RIA:

1. (b)(5)

Please advise if folks have any questions or wish to discuss. Also, I would be interested in when the response to our earlier comments is expected.

Thanks,
Brenda

As discussed, please find an initial set of questions on the child labor proposal. This is not a complete set of comments, but does reflect all of our questions surrounding the removal of the exemption from the Agricultural Hazardous Occupations Orders for 14 and 15 year old vocational agricultural students.

I expect to send the full set of comments by the end of this week. Please advise if you have any questions.

Thanks,
Brenda
